DESCRIPTION
DHS is responsible for providing and administering publicly-funded human services to Allegheny County residents. DHS provides services, most particularly for the county's vulnerable populations, through information exchange, prevention, early intervention, case management, crisis intervention and after-care services.
Allegheny Partners for Out-of-School Time (APOST) is a partnership of funders, intermediaries and providers dedicated to building a quality OST System that will contribute to the healthy and successful development of young people as they progress through their school years, graduate from high school and enter into adulthood.
The Design Center is dedicated to design, urban planning and public policy resulting in more livable, equitable and sustainable communities in the Pittsburgh region.
"How Dollar Bank is working with One Northside "
Familylinks helps individuals and families who are struggling with mental health issues, developmental disabilities, addictions, abuse, behavioral problems, illnesses, maintaining independence and other life challenges.
Family Resources approach to prevention, intervention and treatment is compassionate, holistic, and steeped in evidence-based and promising practices, with a focus on understanding and supporting families before, during, and after critical times of need.
FOCUS North America is a national movement of Orthodox Christians, united in faith and joined by a desire to provide action-oriented and sustainable solutions to poverty in communities across America— offering job training and placement, housing, and feeding programs, as well as other human services to the homeless and working poor of America.
The Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank's programs source and distribute foods to people in need from national, regional and local donors and partners, including commercial wholesalers, farms, restaurants, individuals as well as federal, state and local governments.
The HCEF advances the education of children and youth experiencing homelessness in Allegheny County by providing educational programs and services, serving as a trusted advocate, sharing expertise and facilitating collaborative relationships that maximize the collective impact among community partners.
KaBOOM! is the national non-profit dedicated to bringing balanced and active play into the daily lives of all kids, particularly those growing up in poverty in America. They create great places to play, inspire communities to promote and support play, and work to drive the national discussion about the importance of play in fostering healthy lives and communities.
L.I.V.I.N.G Ministries is addressing poverty in Pittsburgh through a strategy that combines building personal relationships, meeting basic needs, offering tools for self-sufficiency, and providing opportunities for community involvement.
Light of Life provides a home for the homeless and food for the hungry, and provides services among the poor, addicted, abused and needy.
Working with local leaders and investing in housing health, education, public safety and employment, LISC equips struggling communities with the capital, strategy and know-how to become places where people can thrive
Pittsburgh Mercy services' help people lead fulfilling, healthy and successful lives in the community in the matters of mental health, intellectual disabilities, alcohol and other addictions and providing a crisis center and promoting integrated health care.
Neighborhood Allies is a community development intermediary which is committed to strategies that benefit low and moderate income people in transitional and deeply distressed communities and connecting them with valued, vetted resources.
The NSCC is a service organization that creates, develops, and fosters a supportive climate that serves the interests of its members. As a partner with business, the Chamber is a resource of services that help to promote, maintain and enhance business activities on the Northside.

Northside Common Ministries is a non-sectarian, non-profit, community-based organization that was formed to meet the increasing needs of the homeless population. An affiliate unit of Goodwill of Southwestern Pennsylvania, NCM operates the Northside Community Food Pantry, and a Permanent Housing Program for men with disabilities.

NCFH is a vehicle moving at the federal, state, and local level to inspire the Northside neighbors and neighborhoods to be more proactive regarding equity, sustainability, health, and safety.

Promoting and Enhancing the Vitality & Quality of Life in Pittsburgh's Northside.

The Pittsburgh Association for the Education of Young Children (PAEYC) works to support high-quality care and education for young children from birth until age nine across 10 counties in Southwestern Pennsylvania. PAEYC provides professional development, community resources and advocacy for the needs and rights of children, their families and the individuals who work with them.

Improving quality of life for the people of Pittsburgh by restoring the park system to excellence in partnership with government and the community. Projects and programs are conducted with respect for the environment, historic design, and the needs of our diverse region.

Pittsburgh Public Schools are dedicated to being one of America's premier school districts where all students graduating high school are Promise-Ready.

The Pittsburgh Technology Council assists tech companies in succeeding through a proven platform of business development, talent retention, government relations and visibility services. Companies at all growth stages use the Pittsburgh Technology Council to build new business, connect to capital, grow a workforce and make headlines.

Propel's mission is to catalyze the transformation of public education so that all children have access to high performing public schools by opening and operating high performance schools of choice in educationally underserved communities throughout the Pittsburgh region.

Remake Learning is a resource for the people, organizations, and ideas shaping the future of teaching and learning in the greater Pittsburgh region.

The Salvation Army is dedicated to caring for the poor, feeding the hungry and educating our youth. They also respond to emergencies, shelter the homeless, reunite families, and renew health to addicts. Wholistic service is the goal - to meet physical, social, psychological, emotional and spiritual needs of families and individuals.

Three Rivers Youth preserves and unites families, combats homelessness, enhances educational opportunities and builds life skills for at-risk youth.

Three Rivers Workforce Investment Board (3RWIB) works to ensure that the current and future needs of businesses and job seekers are met. With tens of thousands of jobs available in the Pittsburgh region, 3RWIB bridges the gap between people looking for work and companies in need of talent.

The University Center for Social and Urban Research (UCSUR) is a resource for researchers and educators interested in the basic and applied social and behavioral sciences. As a hub for interdisciplinary research and collaboration, UCSUR promotes a research agenda focused on the social, economic, and health issues most relevant to our society

Urban Innovation21 is a unique public-private partnership that is supporting the growth of entrepreneurship in our region's innovation economy and connecting that growth to underserved communities and the residents that live in those communities.

The Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh (URA) is the City of Pittsburgh's economic development agency, committed to creating jobs, expanding the City's tax base and improving the vitality of businesses and neighborhoods. The URA achieves this mission by assembling, preparing and conveying sites for major mixed-use developments; and by providing a portfolio of programs that include financing for business location, relocation and expansion, housing construction and rehabilitation, and home purchases and improvements.
